RE: NEWLY REVISED AFFIDAVIT PART A, AFFIDAVIT PART C AND NOTICE OF EXCESS LINE PLACEMENT FORMS

The new Affidavit Part A and Part C forms and the Notice of Excess Line Placement forms are now available on the ELANY website in the “Forms” section under (<http://www.elany.org/docs/forms/61.pdf>). They are already available for those excess line brokers who use ELANY’s electronic filing system (EEFS).

Wholesale excess line brokers should notify all retail producers to use the new Part C affidavit form and new Notice of Excess Line Placement form if the retailer prepares it. Forward the above noted “Forms” link to your retailers today and advise them of the new forms. Brokers should begin transitioning to the new forms immediately. ELANY will not reject the old forms until further notice is provided.

The form changes were necessitated in order to implement certain mandatory provisions of the Nonadmitted and Reinsurance Reform Act (NRRA) that become effective July 21, 2011. If you have any questions regarding implementation of the mandatory provisions of the NRRA, please e-mail Eugene Nunziata at enunziata@elany.org. If you have questions that are more extensive, we will schedule a meeting to discuss them.

For a more comprehensive understanding of the NRRA implementation requirements, please see ELANY’s April 2011 Compliance Advisor which can be found on our website www.elany.org under “Hot News.”

All current ELANY bulletins and other current ELANY publications can be found on our website at <http://www.elany.org>.
